

7th Sunday of Easter

"Everything of mine is yours and everything of yours is mine." Jesus spoke these words while praying to his Father in heaven. What a perfect image of unity! Nothing stands as a barrier between the Father and the Son. They share everything. We can imagine the sort of divine harmony that exists between them. And then, we can ask ourselves whether we help foster that kind of harmony with those around us.

We are made in God's image, after all. We are supposed to "look" like God. Are we willing to share with our family, friends, and neighbors like God the Father and God the Son do with one another? Do we ever draw the line at what is "mine"? My time, my money, my house, my plans...we can easily rationalize our selfishness. But we were built for something much more beautiful: to reflect who God is through who we are. We are meant to be like walking mirrors of the divine likeness. It's our job to keep the mirror clean, however. When we are selfish or possessive, we smudge the reflection of God. The three persons of the Blessed Trinity--Father, Son, and Holy Spirit--are perfectly generous with one another. They even share their glory, as Jesus says today: "Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you."

Do we share our glory? When we accomplish something, do we recognize the people who helped along the way? Do we acknowledge God who gave us our talents, our skills, and our abilities in the first place? Jesus says to his Father, "Everything you gave me is from you." And this is true for us as well. Everything we have, down to life itself, comes from God. May we strive to be as generous with others as God has been with us.
